

I Can Statements

THIRD GRADE

Lesson: Products of Art

I can look at art, group objects, and use multiplication to find the highest product.

Lesson: Quick Change

I can use my knowledge of how magnets work to help an actor quickly change their costume.

Lesson: Picture the Message

I can look at art and understand and communicate information about it.

Lesson: Lyric Analysis

I can tell the main idea of a song by reading the lyrics and listening to the music.

I Can Statements

THIRD GRADE

Lesson: Focusing the View

I can talk with others and write about to how to manage audience experiences using media arts.

Lesson: Media Fluency

I can record myself reading a poem or story, and use technology to add pictures into the recording.

Lesson: Thriving and Surviving

I can create a piece of art that shows where different organisms live, and explains what would happen if they were moved to another habitat.

Lesson: What Do You Say?

I can change the way my voice sounds to make reading more fun and help how quickly I can read.

I Can Statements

THIRD GRADE

Lesson: Character Dissent

I can change the point of view of a character in a fairy tale into and turn it into a play.

Lesson: Detailed Traits

I can create a piece of artwork that shows how plants and animals adapt to different environments.

Lesson: Finding the Words

I can look at a picture book and add sentences to describe each picture to recreate the story in my own words.

Lesson: Stopping Change

I can work with others to think of ideas to solve climate change.

I Can Statements

THIRD GRADE

Lesson: Dancing Stories

I can watch ballets based on fairy tales and connect the movement with what is happening in the story.

Lesson: Letters of Gratitude

I can read a book, choose what inspires me, and write a letter to the author explaining how they inspired me.

Lesson: Measuring the Story

I can add details to a piece of art that already exists.

Lesson: Region Design

I can describe climates in different areas and create a new outfit that would be a good choice for a vacation to that location.

I Can Statements

THIRD GRADE

Lesson: Polygon Palette

I can use math to create a new artwork in the same style of Paul Klee.

Lesson: Shades of Meaning

I can understand synonyms and put together a visual thesaurus.

Lesson: Take Note

I can use fractions to write music.

Lesson: Where Do I Stand?

I can measure things and show my understand of stage directions by writing directions for the placement of dancers on stage.